as our sponsors are Swedish companies, their services are primarily aimed at Swedish film makers. Jönköping Filmfestival is not able to offer the winner any other concessions, if he or she is not able to make use of the prize.

Our responsibilities end when the winning entry is selected.

However, everyone is entitled to enter the contest and we are, naturally, keen to show quality films regardless of production country.

Responsibility:

The organizers accept responsibility for received material. We also take responsibility for all costs in freight for entries selected for competition. If you wish us to return your DVD after the selection, please write this wish on the application.
